FRESCOBALDI TOSCANA	2017	Castello Di Pomino Benefizio Bianco Riserva DOC 2017 Grape Variety: 100% Chardonnay. Bright yellow color with golden reflections. The nose opens with characteristic citrus scents typical of the variety, followed by elegant spicy notes of vanilla and cinnamon. On the palate it is pleasantly fresh, with hints of white flowers and toasted accompanying towards a creamy final of white chocolate. Perfect in combination with vegetable creams and baked fish, it is recommended to accompany caviar.	150
	2017	Castello Di Pomino Bianco DOC 2017 Grape Variety: Largely Chardonnay and Pinot Bianco with small amounts of other complementary varieties. The citrus notes of citron and lemon, frangipani and jasmine flowers and the fruity notes of apricot and quince affect the nose. Amazing in the mouth, soft, aromas of tropical fruit are released from the glass. The attack in the mouth is sapid with an aftertaste that reminds the ripe raspberry, the final is persistent.	130
	2016	Alie Rose Toscana IGT 2016 Grape Variety: Syrah, with a touch of Vermentino Alie 2016 is a refined and elegant wine characterised by its pale rosé colour and subtle peach highlights. Fruity and intense with immediate freshness on the nose gained in ripe fruity, the aromatic fruits carry from the nose to the palate, augmented by a textured streak of minerality, with citrus, Marasca cherries and white melon fruit notes. A characterful rosé with a long, fresh, persistent finish. Alie partners beautifully with smoked fish, particularly salmon, as well as with prosciutto, lighter meats, poultry and fish. It is particularly recommended with well-spiced dishes and Asian cuisine.	98
	2015	Nipozzano Chianti Rufina Riserva DOCG 2015 Grape Variety: Sangiovese and complementary grapes (Malvasia nera, Colorino, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon) Nipozzano 2015 has an intense ruby-red colour. The nose provides a pleasant combination of the clear notes of red berries and lightly toasted coffee, lending complexity to the wine before giving way to a fresh and spicy finish. In the mouth the wine is rich, characterised by the elegant density of the grapes and the mineral freshness of the finish that make it balanced and persistent.	135
	2017	Tenuta di Castiglioni Chianti DOCG 2017 Grape Variety: Sangiovese and Merlot Castiglioni Chianti 2016 is the deep ruby red with scarlet hues typical of younger wines. The nose is intensely fruity, with notes of cherry, wild strawberry and blackberry alongside mediterranean floral and herbal scents. In the mouth the wine is sprightly but gives way to a pleasant softness and intense fruity aromas before closing with a persistent but delicate and clean finish.	100

FRESCOBALDI TOSCANA	2014	Nipozzano Chianti Riserva Vecchie Viti DOCG 2014 Grape Variety: Sangiovese and complementary varieties (Malvasia nera, Colorino, Canaiolo) Nipozzano Vecchie Viti 2014 is intensely ruby red. The bouquet exhibits a great balance between the floral notes of apricot and the spiced notes of rose hip and vanilla. To the palate it is fresh, complex and persistent. The tannins are built within the body of the wine, which is silky and harmonious. The acidic component is significant and blends in elegantly with the alcohol content. Notes of raspberry, currant, gooseberry lead to a finish of white pepper and cocoa powder.	158
	2012	Nipozzano Montesodi 2012 Grape Variety: Sangiovese Montesodi 2012 appears a deep ruby red, with garnet highlights. Its bouquet is pronounced, crisp, and deeply fragrant, with impressions of earthy mineral complemented by aromatic herbs, liquor cherries, sweet violets, and ginger. The palate continues the aromatic complex on the nose, and is marked by toasty, well-ripened tannins that will show a slight burr. The multi-layered finish is infused with bitter almond and hazelnut, as well as hints of strawberry-free, orange-blossom honey, bitter-orange marmalade and white peach and plum.	210
	2013	Nipozzano Mormoreto Toscana IGT 2013 Grape Variety: Largely Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Sangiovese, with a touch of Petit Verdot. The wine presents itself with an impenetrably intense ruby colour and a complex nose: red fruits such as blackberry and raspberry meet the balanced floral notes of bergamot and the spiced ones of bitter cocoa, cocoa butter, roasted coffee bean, light vanilla, cloves, jasmine and grey tea. In the mouth the wine is fresh, complex, persistent and balanced. The tannins blend well with the body resulting in a wine that is velvety to the palate. The acidic component is noteworthy and joins elegantly with the alcoholic content. Notes of mixed berries, black and raspberry, and a light liquorish note accompany a peaty whisky, tobacco and vanilla finish.	318
